

Update on Spring 2015 COA Accreditation Workload August 2014

Overview

This item is presented in order to provide Committee on Accreditation members an understanding of the workload projected for Spring 2015.

Background

Future COA meetings have been scheduled in February, April, June and August of 2015 which is a time in the accreditation cycle when the majority of accreditation site visits occur. As a result, much of the agenda for these meetings will be comprised of accreditation site visit reports presented for COA consideration. Agenda items will also be added to the meetings depending upon the continuing discussions and work related to the strengthening and streamlining of the accreditation process.

In order to better comprehend and plan the workload for the upcoming COA meetings, the following table identifies the accreditation site visits reports that may be presented during each of the scheduled COA meetings in 2015. This schedule of Accreditation reports is intended to give COA members a better sense of the workload for each of the upcoming Spring 2015 meetings and is subject to change.
